Eight hundred slop fed cattle, aggregating 1,000,000 pounds, changed hands at Lexington for $50,000. The cattle were the property of Messrs. Perry & Lester, of Nashville, and were purchased by Armour & Co., of Chicago.

G. H. Poulter has 137 ewes and 182 lambs, and in this "bunch" of ewes there are 53 which have two lambs each, making 106 lambs to the 53 ewes, and leaving only eight ewes of the 137 without lambs.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

C. B. Creighton, of Omaha, Neb., has purchased of Hewitt Brothers the four year old trotting mare, Agnes L. May, by Ashland Wilkes, dam Nellie Riley, for $1,000. She has a record of 2:17 and trotted a trial mile over the local track last year in 2:12½.

Further investigation into the condition of the wheat in Harrodsburg county discloses the fact that there will not be more than enough raised in the county to pay for the seed, the fertilizer and furish bread. The crop last year was conservatively estimated at 600,000 bushels. This year it can not exceed 200,000 and some do not put it as high as that. The falling off represents a loss to the farmers of $250,000 at last year's price.—News.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the American people is to "get rich"; the second, how to retain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second (good health) by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a dependent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Constipation, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well-known August Flower will relieve you at once. Go to Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Ky., and get a sample bottle free. (Regular size, 75c. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

Jasper, Texas, was wiped out by a fire started by burglars, who sought by this means to hide their crime. They had robbed the safes of the post-office and county treasurer. Seventeen houses, including every business house, were destroyed.

Miss Kuster had been attending Nicholasville Institute and young Stark came up from Nelson county to attend the commencement exercises, at the close of which they concluded to elope, and boarded the Southbound Q. & C. for Junction City.

When we copied the Courier Journal dispatch saying that Miss Nancy W. Glens had been married in Jeffersonville to Mr. W. H. Powell, we did not know the young lady was the daughter of our countyman, Mr. George Miller Glens. The Advocate says of the marriage: "The bride is a very handsome lady. The young couple had been sweethearts for several months, having first met in Lebanon while visiting in that city. They will reside temporarily with the groom's parents on Harrodsburg Avenue. The groom is a prosperous farmer and an exceedingly clever young man. His bride is the handsome daughter of Marshall Brown and she is both popular and accomplished. Mr. Sharpe and his intended Mr. Whipp and Miss Harrodsburg arrived here Sunday evening, when they told a J. reporter that they were here to consult a dentist. They came up yesterday and admitted they had 'storiored a little'."

Mr. O. C. Sharpe and Miss Maggie Brown, of Casey, were married at the Verona Hotel yesterday by Rev. J. W. Hagin, Mr. Jno. R. Whipp and Miss Lynn Harrodsburg, also of Casey, accompanied the pair here and stood with them during the ceremony. Mr. Sharpe is a prosperous farmer and an exceedingly clever young man. His bride is the handsome daughter of Marshall Brown and she is both popular and accomplished. Mr. Sharpe and his intended Mr. Whipp and Miss Harrodsburg arrived here Sunday evening, when they told a J. reporter that they were here to consult a dentist. They came up yesterday and admitted they had "storiored a little'."

HIS LIFE SAVED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY

"I am sure that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at one time saved my life," says A. E. Lafollette, of Gregory Landing, Clark county, Missouri. "I was in such bad shape that the doctors said I could not live. When I was at the lowest ebb, one of my neighbors brought in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and I took it and got instant relief. I soon got up and around. That was nine years ago and I am still in good health. Since then that medicine has always been in my house and always will be. It is the best on earth." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

The Owenton Herald facetiously says: It turns out that the proposed junketing trip of the Kentucky Press Association will cost each person about $10. The first of August, the date selected, is a mighty busy time for a good many editors. For our part, we haven't sufficiently regained our strength to undertake the trip.

At Madisonville, Deputy Sheriff L. L. and his possemen, Johnson and McIntosh, were found guilty of manslaughter and given sentences of two years' imprisonment for killing marching soldiers. Posseman Peenrod was dismissed.

Meridith Stanley jumped blindfolded from the Cincinnati suspension bridge into the Ohio river successfully, a distance of 50 feet, to decide a small wager.

DAVID W. VANDEVER.

A long life ended at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, when Mr. D. W. Vandever breathed his last after a protracted illness of intestinal trouble. Born in Casey county, July 12, 1820, he would soon have been 82 years of age. He served his native county as sheriff for two years, and afterwards refused a nomination by the whigs, who had a majority in the county, for the Legislature. In 1855 he removed to Stanford where until about a year ago, he followed the business of merchandising. A man of fine executive ability, he did much for Stanford during his several terms as mayor, and was proud of the fact that under his administration the water works and electric plant were constructed for and put in operation. In 1899 he was nominated for commissioner of agriculture on the Brown ticket, but was too old to take a very active part in the campaign. Mr. Vandever's first wife was Miss Sallie Coffey, by which union there was one child, but it and its mother died when the child was very young. In 1857, Mr. Vandever married Miss Martha Lunsford, of Stanford, and to them five children were born, Mrs. W. E. Varoon, Mrs. Mattie Kirby and Miss Nannie Vandever surviving, together with the widow, to mourn the loss of an indulgent and loving father and husband. A member of the Christian church for 50 years, he was an elder in the church here for most of the time and took great interest in its affairs. A Mason since he was 23, he arose to the high degree of Knight Templar and next to the church he loved the order, of which for a long time he was one of the brightest lights. Somewhat eccentric and decidedly irascible, he was possessed of a kind heart and was greatly loved by his friends, who will sorrow to know that he is no more. Today at 10 o'clock, the remains will be followed to the grave in Buffalo Cemetery, where Elder Joseph Ballou will hold a short service, and there deposited till the mortal shall put on "immortality."

Ryan Commandry, No. 17, of Danville, will attend the funeral in a body and take part in the services.

Humphrey, Casey County.

Have just returned from Walnut Hill church, three miles below Liberty, where decoration services were held over the soldiers Thursday. Owing to farmers being somewhat behind with their work, not many were expected to be in attendance, but to our agreeable surprise, a large and intelligent number of all ages, sexes and conditions were on hand and we all had a good time. Some very few criticized the occasion on account of the absence of hand music, but it must be remembered that the few silver haired veterans who survive are compelled to use economy. But we had good music any way. The Walnut Hill and Salem church Sunday school choir did some fine singing when called upon. There was also good drum and fife music furnished by two dark complexioned sons of African descent, which was more interesting to little boys and girls than hand music, as many had never heard a fife before.

Decoration services were conducted by Commander Joah Rigney, of James Humphrey Post, and Senior Vice Commander James Patten, of Danville Post, both of whom in addresses explained the object and intention of decoration day in elegant language and read the impressive ceremonies.

After partaking of a good picnic dinner, Mr. M. E. Tarter was called to the rostrum under the cool, shady trees near the church and delivered an eloquent address of about 20 minutes on the gallantry of the American soldiers and their many noble and brave deeds or "blood, flame and field." Mr. James Evans, of the Danville section, then followed with a good speech. Eld. J. Q. Montgomery now appeared on the ground and was called to the stand and delivered a fine tribute to the American soldier and the late happy manifestations of fraternal union of the blue and the gray, and his development into one of the grandest soldiers of the world. A storm becoming threatening, the crowd was dismissed.

MR. BRYAN does not mince his words in criticizing the supreme court decision in the insular cases. He says that the court has joined hands with the president in an effort to change our form of government and declares that it will be done unless the people rise in their might and repudiate the verdict. In a long review of the decision he says in substance that by five to four the supreme court has declared McKinley emperor of Porto Rico and the emperor gratefully and gladly accepted the title. It is perhaps the most important decision ever rendered by the court. It not only declares Congress greater than the constitution, the creature greater than the creator, but it denies the necessity of a written constitution. The position of the court is excused by reasoning which if followed, destroys constitutional liberty in the United States. The decision in effect declares the people are not the source of power, defends taxation without representation and denies the right of government to derive power from the consent of the governed. The decision raises a great political issue which will be settled by the people and there yet remains an appeal to the people. With respect to our new possessions, the decision is manifestly unfair. Under this opinion we are about to embark upon Great Britain's colonial policy. Throughout the majority opinion delivered by Justice Brown runs the theory that the American Congress may do anything not forbidden in the constitution. This is one of the most repugnant features of this opinion. Brown seems to have searched the constitution for prohibitions rather than for grant of power, which the American people always conceived to be the true office of that instrument. As the court is to take an other whack at insular cases in September it may reverse itself then, after the people have shown through the press and on the rostrum how bitterly they oppose the attempts to utterly disregard the sacred instrument so wisely made and maintained by our forefathers.

THE Brownies in Warren county are "tending" like they ain't dead by authorizing a call for a convention to meet in Bowling Green on the 3rd Monday in August to make nominations for county and legislative offices. This pretended evidence of life in the corpse ought to subject it to the same fine that a supposed dead man was in West Virginia. After the coroner had "sat" on the body and his jury had decided that death was due to heart disease, he arose from the dead and created a great commotion. The mayor of the city, who was present, decided that he was guilty of a breach of the peace and fined him $5. The Brownies being so few and far between they may not be able to disturb the peace, but they should be fined anyway for not having enough sense to stay dead.

MR. J. T. BOSWELL, editor of the Harrodsburg Democrat for the past year, retires with last week's edition of that paper, owing to "demands upon his time and abilities." He kept the excellent paper up to its high standard and secured a high place with the fraternity for his gentlemanly bearing towards them, and his retirement will be regretted.

THE new editor of the Franklin Favorite, Mr. C. C. Pare, can not advance the Senatorial interests of Judge Good-knight by making sport of Gov. McCreary. The governor is of the kind that can not be laughed out of court and the man who attempts it usually demonstrates his lack of brains and breeding.

THE insular cases having been decided at Washington, they next go up to W. C. P. Breckinridge, the court of last resort.—Paducah Democrat. As the colonel announces that the decision is a vindication of his position in the premises, the case is settled and the incident closed.

Judge Black says he has not applied for the vacant judgeship in his district.

TILLMAN and McLaurin, the South Carolina Senators, who sent in their resignations a few days ago, are proving to their constituency that both of them lack the dignity that it is supposed men of that august body possess. At long range McLaurin calls Tillman a malicious falsifier and Tillman refers to his colleague as an infernal little fool. The quarrel they are indulging in is not becoming to either of them and the sooner they get together and settle their differences the better. To us the senior Senator seems to be attacking entirely too much importance to his colleague, who is daily proving himself a miserable renegade and a traitor to the party that elected him. Senator Tillman should ignore McLaurin and rely on the democracy of his State to attend to the gentleman who has betrayed the trust that has been reposed in him.

THE Williamstown Courier sees all other attempts at illustrated, souvenir editions and goes them several better. The issue of May 30 is 52 pages, 15x22 with beautifully illuminated cover and each page profusely illustrated with the men and women who make the capital of Grant famous, together with their children, their homes, public institutions and other places of interest, all described in a most entertaining way. For one we had no idea that Williamstown was half as much as the paper shows it is or that it has near as many people as pictures appear in it. The entire publication evinces a splendid fund of description, an almost limitless supply of type and an enterprise that the people of Grant ought to appreciate. We congratulate Editor Jno. H. Westover and award him both the red and the blue in souvenir editions gotten out so far.

THE census bureau takes it back and says it made a mistake of 1,412 in the population of the United States. It being that much less than at first bulletined. The finally revised and not to be changed figures are 76,303,387, a pretty stiff number of people after all.

Gov. Beckham named John Henry Wilson, of Barbourville, as special judge in the Clay circuit court to try the case of N. C. Potter against Martha Hogg. The regular judge could not sit in the case and the Clay bar could not agree.

Yesterday was the birthday of Jefferson Davis, he having been born June 8, 1808. The last Virginia Legislature made it a holiday in order to commemorate his distinguished services as a patriot, christian and champion of constitutional liberty.

The Kentucky Journal is to be inaugurated at Frankfort. Its capital stock is $2,000, paid up, and the incorporators are Henry B. Hines, John B. Chenault, A. D. Martlo, Ben Watt, J. W. Marksboro, W. W. Longmoor and James Pelegrove. Sam J. Shackelford, Ed O. Leigh and others are stockholders.

It is now stated that Senator McLaurin will resign just previous to the meeting of Congress in December, and should his successor be a Bryan-Tillman man McLaurin will oppose him in 1902. It is conceded in Washington that McLaurin would have no show against Tillman, who refuses to withdraw his resignation.

HUTCHISON, - Mrs. Jas. W. Hutchison, of the Neal's Creek section, died Friday after a lingering illness of consumption, aged 29. She was buried at her late home Saturday after services by Rev. W. E. Arnold. Mrs. Hutchison was a daughter of William Cooley and was an excellent woman. A husband but no children survive.

THE burglars paid their respects to J. E. Bruce the night they robbed the residence of Messrs. George L. Penny and J. M. McRoberts. They raised a back window but could not get in and departed, doing no damage save leaving a gate open and causing Mr. Bruce to think he had lost a horse which wandered out. The animal was found at his farm several hours later.

DAMAGE SUIT. - Alex. Martin, as administrator of his son, Walter Martin, has brought suit against the Cumberland and Stanford Telephone Companies for $20,000. Several weeks ago lightning struck the line of wire and running along it for 1 mile, killed Walter Martin, who was sitting under an awning at Hamilton's store in Rowland. Plaintiff claims that the death was due to the carelessness of the companies in letting the wire continue to stay on the house after being ordered to remove it and because of their failure to provide ground wires and other safeguards against lightning.

THE court of appeals reversed the judgment of the Garrard circuit court in the case of the Commonwealth against Ginn & Co. The action was to recover $10,000 damages for alleged fraud by violation of the company to furnish books to the Kentucky schools at the same price charged in other States. Montgomery's History for instance, being sold in Indiana at 65c and in Kentucky at $1. The higher court holds that when the county superintendent discovers fraud in the sale of books under the school law, he can bring suit and recover damages to the full amount of the bond, the money to go to the common schools of that county.

PARSONS. - James Henry Parsons died at his home on the Proachersville pike yesterday after a long illness, which began with grip. He was born in 1815 and a good portion of his long and honorable life was spent in this county. He was a brother of Mrs. John B. Mereson, of this place, and was a christian gentleman in the highest sense of the term. A few years ago Mr. Parsons married a Miss Holtzclaw and she and two little children, the youngest hardly a year old, survive. He was a member of the Goshen church and was a regular attendant at its services until his illness. The remains will be taken to Crab Orchard this afternoon and interred after services by Elder J. G. Livingston.

REID's circus will stretch its tents at Hustonville Saturday next. Mr. Samuel Reid wants it distinctly understood that it is not his affair.

SNAKE CHARMER. - George Newland, little son of ex-Marshall G. J. Newland, is a snake charmer. He amused his playmates the other day by catching a good-sized snake and playing with it like the average child does a doll.

START RIGHT. - John Bright, Jr., & Co. start out in business right by taking a good-sized advertisement in this paper, which our readers should carefully peruse each issue. They are offering some unheard of bargains in order to make room for new goods and they cordially invite you to call in and get your share.

THE burglars transferred their operations to Danville Friday night, when they broke into H. C. Bright's residence and got a $50 gold watch and chain, and into J. P. Harbison's and secured a watch and $5 belonging to Bowen Fox. They also stole a number of rugs from the veranda of H. C. Bright's residence, so Mr. Owen McIntyre, who has our thanks, telephoned us.

LINCOLN COUNTY DREW FIRST MONEY. - The residence of A. K. Singleton, near Waynesburg, burned Saturday evening, May 25th. It was insured in the Farmers Home Insurance Co., of Junction City, for $500. The company has been doing business nearly two years and this is its first total loss. The loss was adjusted on the 28th, just three days after fire. Paid in full; no discount. No three-fourths clause in their policy.

THE commencement week opened beautifully and when the pupils of Stanford Female College filed into the Christian church and were seated there was not left standing room, so great was the crowd. After appropriate and well rendered music, including a solo by Mrs. L. B. Cook, Rev. H. A. Sumrell, of the Danville Baptist church, preached a very instructive sermon, which is highly complimented by all who heard it. The annual concert and elocutionary entertainment will occur at Walton's Opera House tomorrow night, Wednesday, and the closing exercises at the same place Thursday morning.

HUSTONVILLE FAIR. - At a meeting of the stock men and others at Hustonville Saturday it was decided to hold a fair there July 24, 25 and 26. James P. Harper, who was a decided success last year, was again chosen president. W. Gill Cowan, one of the best fair men in the country, was made first vice president, W. D. Hocker, secretary and June H. Hocker, treasurer. The Hocker brothers have been secretary and treasurer of every fair Hustonville has had in years and they make capital of fliers. The directors and vice-presidents selected are among the best and most substantial citizens of Lincoln and adjoining counties. It was decided to offer liberal premiums in every ring and to spare neither time nor means in making the exhibition a success in every particular. As usual, the INTERIOR JOURNAL will celebrate the occasion by getting out a fair daily.

THE Danville News is considerably off when it says there are seven rape cases to be tried at the next term of the Lincoln circuit court, which begins Monday. Circuit Clerk Holdam, who ought to know, says there are only two cases of rape and two for detention. There are three murder cases on the docket. Thomas Lee, for killing Tecumseh Waters at Kingsville Christmas, was tried last court, but had a hung jury. The other two cases are very old ones, but both will more than likely be tried this term. They are Dudley Vaughn, for killing C. C. Kenderdoffer at Moreland, Oct. 15, 1883, and Thomas Fish, for killing Joe Whitley, a Crab Orchard Negro, June 4, 1887. Vaughn had a hung jury soon after the killing occurred and he was given bail. Federal authorities got him in tow for counterfeiting, we are informed, and he served a term in the penitentiary. Fish, charged with killing Whitley, has never been tried. He was recently arrested at Vincennes, Ind. There are 55 Commonwealth, 18 ordinary, 18 ordinary appearances, 18 equity appearances and 68 old equity cases on the docket. Six couples will seek to be legally separated at the term.

Crab Orchard.

Misses Annie Bronaugh and Bert James made a visit to Danville Monday.

Mr. Hugh Hagan, of Livingston, has gone for his new drugs and will soon open his store, adjoining the dry goods store of Robert Edmiston. There is not a vacant store-room or residence here now, and we do trust that Crab Orchard will continue on the up grade.

The children of the Christian Sunday school prepared exercises for "Children's Day," and presented them in the Christian church Sunday night. They made quite a success of their undertaking. A crowded house witnessed their performance and all went away feeling that it was good to have been there.

Guests are beginning to arrive and Crab Orchard is putting on her usual summer attire. Vehicles of all description are in demand, and all are getting in readiness for the opening of the famous old Crab Orchard Springs and the gathering of the druggists of the State, which grand body will convene here on the 15th. Manager J. B. Willis and wife are making extensive preparations for the comfort of their many anticipated guests during the coming season, and here's success to them.

Dr. E. G. Dick, of the Keeley Institute, left Friday night for Rockford, Ill., to be present at the nuptials of his daughter, Miss Helen, who is to be wedded to Mr. Countryman on the 5th. Mrs. Judge Collier and daughter, Miss Fannie, of Mt. Vernon, are pleasant guests of Miss Fannie Langford. Mr. Gray returned Friday from a business trip to Virginia. Mrs. M. Livingston left for her home in Chicago after a pleasant stay with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Doores. Her daughter, Sellma, will remain for some weeks. Mrs. Spiegel and daughter, Florence, will return Wednesday to their home in Shelbyville, Ind. Dr. Doores was delighted with his sojourn in Memphis during the Confederate reunion. He gives glowing accounts of the many happenings with and among that vast concourse of people. Aunt Clara Singleton continues very feeble. Dr. Stapp improves slowly. Aunt Amanda Roberts is still quite ill. Prof. Riggs and wife left Friday for a visit to Indiana. Miss Grace Tudor spent Sunday in Danville. D. H. Edmiston spent Sunday with his family. Miss McClure, of Indiana, is a visitor of Mrs. Jeff Holman. Rev. G. W. Shepherd went to Paint Lick Saturday to fill his appointment there.
